

‘FROM A FAR COUNTRY’:
KAROL WOJTYŁA, POPE JOHN PAUL II: POLE, PRIEST, POPE

Boole IV Lecture Theatre
University College Cork
Saturday 9th November 2013

BOOLE IV LECTURE THEATRE

- 9.30am Opening remarks
Gabriel Doherty, School of History, University College Cork
- 9.40am The moral theology of Pope John Paul II
Dr John Murray, Mater Dei Institute, Dublin
- 10.40am COFFEE BREAK
- 10.50am John Paul II and the People’s Republic of Poland
Dr Marek Lasota, Institute of National Remembrance, Krakow
- 11.50am Woman and womanhood in the teaching of John Paul II
Gráinne Doherty, All Hallows College, Dublin City University
- 12.50pm LUNCH BREAK
- 2.15pm A culture of life in the poems, plays and politics of John Paul II
Professor Ciarán Ó Coigligh, Roinn na Gaeilge, St Patrick’s College, Dublin City University
- 3.15pm The fortunes of the Catholic church in Ireland during the pontificate of Pope John Paul II
Dr Louise Fuller, National University of Ireland, Maynooth
- 4.15pm COFFEE BREAK
- 4.35pm John Paul II and European politics, 1978-2005
Professor Tadeusz Dmochowski, Department of Politics, University of Gdańsk
- 5.35pm Closing remarks
Gabriel Doherty, School of History, University College Cork

Conference organised by Gabriel Doherty, School of History, University College Cork, with generous assistance from the Embassy of the Republic of Poland, Dublin, and the MyCork Association.

Please address any correspondence to: Pope John Paul II conference, School of History, University College Cork.

Conference web site <http://www.ucc.ie/en/media/academic/schoolofhistory/documents/Programme.docx>

History

University College
Cork

MyCork Association

Embassy
of the Republic of Poland
in Dublin